

The members of each class were initially selected by a faculty and staff committee. The committee selections are vetted and approved by a subcommittee from our Athletic Advisory Council, chaired by Talbot Smith, Class of 1950. Head of Schools, John Buxton, provides final approval.

The committee follows these guidelines in making their selections.

Culver Athletic Hall of Fame Criteria

Recipients may qualify under one or all of the following guidelines:

1. Exceptional athletic leadership at Culver, which merited local, state, or national attention and/or awards.
2. Success in collegiate, professional, or “advanced” amateur athletics, to include:
 - Captain of a Varsity sport on collegiate level.
 - Experience on the professional level.
 - Experience as an Olympian.
3. Significant contribution to the betterment of athletics.
4. Must be ten years out of Culver.
5. Honored faculty/staff (coaches) must be retired or no longer at Culver.
6. Athletic record of the individual must be such that there is no question as to his/her qualifications for Hall of Fame selection. Candidates must be accepted by all members of the selection committee who are present for final vote.
7. There is no limit to the number of times an athlete may be considered for the Hall of Fame. However, after three consecutive years, a candidate must go off the ballot for a year before being considered again.

*Approved by committee January 1994

The committee also endeavors to spread the wealth selecting from a broad range of class years and a diverse array of sports, which of course is one of the interesting byproducts of our association with Culver.

Included is a list of past recipients. Among those inductees are people who have changed the face of their respective sports and endeavors.
